

2015 Human Services Survey

Background Information

definition

“Human services are organized efforts to advance human wellbeing. Supportive services and meaningful opportunities are provided to meet needs in times of crisis, prevent risk behaviors, promote economic security and self-sufficiency, provide meaningful opportunities for personal and community growth, and promote social equity.”

City of Tempe Human Social Services Audit December 2013

Tempe's system

With the creation of the new Human Services Department the City is developing a more centralized structure for delivery of services.

Human Services are delivered through collaboration with all City Departments, Tempe Community Council and Tempe Community Action Agency.
