Inventory and Volunteer Coordinator for Threadz Teen Clothes Closet Program

Tempe Community Council's (TCC) Threadz Teen Clothes Closet program is to eliminate the barriers that inadequate clothing and personal supplies may cause so that youth may confidently participate in their education and extracurricular activities on their path to high school graduation. TCC works in collaboration with the Tempe Union High School District to operate three Threadz locations on the Tempe High, Marcos de Niza and Mountain Pointe high school campuses. Threadz provides clothing, personal care products and school supplies free of charge to any enrolled middle or high school students in one of the three Tempe school districts. Threadz is supported primarily by community donations as well as through grant funding and is staffed entirely by dedicated volunteers. Having access to the variety of supplies provided by Threadz allows students to have what they need to look good, feel clean and have all they need to enter school with confidence and personal pride.
